

ENGAGE. RESOLVE. REALISE.

Speaking from your Strengths Network Leadership

Anna Ellis

Speaker : Facilitator : Consultant

Anna is a professional speaker, trainer and facilitator. From a trail-blazing start as a design engineer, via roles as an IT specialist and senior manager, Anna has worked across the public and private sectors at every level, from skilled worker to company director. This gives her a unique perspective, one that enables her to draw from a wide variety of skills and resources to tailor the right solution for you.

“ She shared her story in just a few seconds and she did it with confidence, passion and authenticity.

A lady who would stand alongside any leader I've ever had the pleasure to listen to.
- Richard McCann

”

Speaking from Your Strengths

To succeed in today's knowledge economy, you need to understand your strengths; understanding leads to self-confidence and self-confidence can move mountains. That's being In The Zone.

Audiences will be able to take immediate and decisive action with the tips, techniques and strategies provided.

Being Splendid - The Art of Network Leadership

Anna's informative talk, linking the latest research with practical applications, encourages the audience to move their own career forward whilst helping others.

Network Leadership enables everyone through three key steps—engage, resolve and realise.

Something Completely Different

Informed by her geek and Steampunk background, Anna has a unique repertoire of entertaining and humorous talks.

Topics such as “What Did The Victorians Ever Do For Us” and “The Steampunk'd Interaction Engine” encourage audiences to view their innovative abilities in a whole new light.